Please bring something to share for the potluck lunch; alternatively, there are a number of restaurants within walking distance of the Academy.

After the Intensive Practice the AAWC will be holding a Yudansha Meeting, though all, regardless of organization or rank, are welcome to attend.

While this training is a real benefit of membership in the AAWC, the training itself remains open to anyone who wishes to join us, regardless of styles of training, organizational affiliations, or personal philosophies. It is our purpose to train in harmony and mutual benefit with all of our friends in Ueshiba Aiki, being guided by our understanding of the principles and teachings of the Founder, Morihei Ueshiba.
